THE EWALD FOUNDATION LITERARY COMPETITION

Call For Entries For 2019 Contests

Fourth- and fifth-grade students in all San Francisco public schools are eligible to submit writing. Teachers are encouraged to select from their common core requirements prose or poetic compositions that they feel is of unusually high quality. [NO BOOK REPORTS] All winners will be printed in the next Ewald Awards Magazine and featured on the Ewald Foundation Website. This year we are also permitting students to individually submit directly to the contest.

The first place, second place, and third place winners of the Literary Competition will receive a CHROMEBOOK. Teachers of winning students and the principals of winning schools will receive an AMAZON gift certificate. (One only per teacher.)

A curatorial committee selected by the district's Visual and Performing Arts office will jury all entries choosing 20 to 30 finalists. A special panel of highly qualified judges selected by the Ewald Foundation then will select the best works.

Submission Checklist:

- Double space each line of text.
- Staple entry in left corner if using more than one sheet of paper. Do not bind the entry or submit it in a folder.
- At the top of each page, title the work and state the student's name. The school's name should be separate.
- Keep a copy of each manuscript submitted.

- Submissions may also now be scanned and submitted via google folder. See below

All entries must be original. Plagiarized work will be disqualified. Because of the number of entries, manuscripts cannot be critiqued or returned. All entries become the property of the Ewald Foundation. By participating in the contest, applicants and their parents or guardians grant the Ewald Foundation the right to publish all or part of any entry without compensation.
